

Utah Division of Homeland Security hosts

Surveillance Detection Training for Commercial Infrastructure Operators and Security Staff

May 9-10-11, 2007
Sandy City Police Department
Training Center
10000 So Centennial Parkway
Sandy, UT 84070

Register on line:
<http://dhls.utah.gov/training/schedule.htm>
Class size is limited to two participants per facility for this No-Cost course

Focused training for Commercial and Chemical Facilities, Critical Infrastructure Sites

- Security Mangers
- Security/Safety Staff
- Managers
- Supervisors
- Operators
- Law Enforcement

Attendees will be provided a foundation for:

- Guideline to mitigating risk
- Applications to detect and deter potential threats
- Identifying Hostile Surveillance positions
- Employing the fundamentals of surveillance detection
- Observing and reporting suspicious individuals / activities

Presented through the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, this course is designed for commercial infrastructure operators and security staff and will provide a foundation for developing and applying plans, which include the fundamentals of Surveillance Detection.

Course Manager:
Tony Garcia, Critical Infrastructure Coordinator
Division of Homeland Security
tgarcia@utah.gov 801-538-9613

